Child Abuse Registry Check Consent Form

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

In addition to criminal history and driving record checks, the TJJJ clearance process for all external applicants being seriously considered for hire includes requesting the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) to conduct a check of the central registry (i.e., the child abuse registry established and maintained by DFPS) for child abuse and neglect cases that have a reason-to-believe finding. The child abuse registry check is also part of the clearance process for: (1) employees of a TJJJ contractor or subcontractor of a contractor who may have access to youth in TJJJ-operated or -contracted facilities; and (2) internal applicants being seriously considered for promotion if the human resources director or designee directs such a check. The child abuse registry check complies with the federal Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) standards.

DFPS provides TJJJ with confirmation of a negative finding if there is no match in the registry. If TJJJ does not receive confirmation of a negative finding: (1) TJJJ considers there to be an open child abuse investigation and potential violation of a PREA standard; (2) the applicant is disqualified from the position unless TJJJ is provided with sufficient information to allow TJJJ to determine that the applicant should not be disqualified from employment (e.g., investigation is closed and the applicant is not listed as a designated perpetrator in the child abuse registry); and (3) TJJJ may select another applicant for the position if such sufficient information is not provided in a timely manner. Contact TJJJ at the following email address to provide additional information for TJJJ's consideration: HRCAR@tjjd.texas.gov
